PRESENTATION OF THE ANNUAL REPORT

President's Report

Refer to Annual Report for full report

- Andrew thanked the longstanding members of the Committee for their assistance in navigating Club processes during his first year as President. He thanked Nicole Gillmer for her support as Chief Race Secretary and welcomed anyone who would like to step into the role, now split into two roles (championships / presentation day support).
- The Club welcomed 176 registered members for the year, and continues to see strong membership turnout across the season.
- The Committee was well populated and meetings were well attended; Andrew thanked the Committee members who have done a great job throughout the year, and the wonderful volunteers who continue to support the Club with their time.
- Andrew mentioned that the sea wall construction is planned to be finished in mid-February next year (tbc), however will continue to connect with Council for updates throughout the season.
